Jeremy's First Hunt

1) Why did Jeremy decided to go through with shooting eventhough he hated the whole idea?

Jeremy was determined to go through with shooting eventhough he hated it because ~~his~~ he loved his father. He wanted his approval more than anything in this world.

2) Why did Jeremy pray to God to make the birds stay away?

Jeremy didn't want to shoot and kill the birds. He loved nature and birds very much. He loved the liveliness and energy of nature. So he prayed to God to make the birds stay away.

3. Why did Jeremy burst into tears?

There was a tug of war in the mind of Jeremy. He wanted to shoot the birds inorder to get the love and approval of his father. But he loved ~~birds~~ birds and nature very much. When he failed to shoot the birds, a chance to please his father was gone. So Jeremy burst into tears.

Character of Jeremy

Jeremy is a 14 year old boy who loved photography but hated shooting ~~But~~ Jeremy and his father reached the marshes to shoot ducks. He decided to go through with shooting because he wanted his father's love and approval. He is a very obedient and sensitive boy. He loved his father very much. He prayed to God to make the birds stay away. He burst into tears when he failed to shoot the birds. His chance to please his father was lost. Jeremy loved nature and birds very much. Later his father encouraged him to pursue his hobby ie Photography.

Character of Jeremy's Father (3)

The father of Jeremy is very loving. He considers his son to be his equals. He wants Jeremy to share his passion in duck shooting When the boy failed to shoot the duck he didn't scold the boy. He mildly enquired what had happened. When Jeremy burst to tears he had only sympathy, love and pride for the boy. He was not disappointed that had not come up to his expectations. In the end he even encouraged Jeremy to persue his hobby that is photography. He is very under standing and he appreciates Jeremy's courage. He respected the boy's sensitive nature and accepted him for what he was.

Model Question

I Read the following excerpts and answer the questions that follow.

1. "Because they were so alive", he said and burst into tears.

(a) Who burst into tears? Jeremy (1 marks)

b) What is 'they' reffered to here?

c) Describe the context.

(b) ~~Jeremy~~ Here 'them' ~~'they'~~ is referred to birds or wild ducks. Jeremy did not want to kill or shoot birds. (2 marks)

(c) Jeremy and his father went to the marshes to shoot the birds. It was Jeremy's first hunt. The boy hated shooting but he decided to continue with it because he loved his father and wanted his approval. He could get his approval only when he shot down a bird. His father had a passion for shooting and he wanted Jeremy to share his ~~passion~~ passion. His father gave him instruction to shoot ~~an~~ the birds and he could see the wild ducks approching the water. Then he prayed to God to make the ~~no~~ birds stay away as he loved birds and nature very much.

Question Who prayed to God? Jeremy.

What is 'them' refered to here?

Describe the